

Hello $FIRSTNAME$,

We trust that you're enjoying the hot summer weather, now it has finally arrived. Mind you, it hasn't been as slow to arrive as our "quarterly" newsletter! But here it is, hopefully better late than never.

You can read about our latest media coverage (thank you Guardian!); a new single-centre cycling break (our most luxurious yet); and our new September special offers - perfect for that short autumn break!

Happy cycling,
Paul and Sue

THINK
SEPTEMBER!

September Special Offers

For start dates throughout September, we're offering a 10% discount on all our Beginner Tours & Constable Country Tours. The discount will be applied to the full package price.

So if you've been thinking about a short cycling break this autumn, now is a great time to turn those plans into reality! Find out more »

Coolpedals @ Seckford Hall Hotel

We've just added a new single-centre cycling destination to our list. It's our most luxurious venue yet, set in the perfect location for exploring Suffolk's famous Heritage Coast and unspoilt winding river estuaries.

And to celebrate the completion of Seckford Hall's recent renovation program, we're offering an introductory 10% discount for September 2013 holiday dates. Find out more »

The Guardian discovers North Essex!

In March, the Guardian's travel writer Joanne O'Connor enjoyed a long weekend exploring some hidden corners of North Essex.

She wrote up a detailed feature article in the Weekend Travel Supplement, with nice mentions for Coolpedals and one of our favourite accommodation partners, The Pheasant. Find out more>>
